Croatian 2nd Round of Trainings!

Croatia

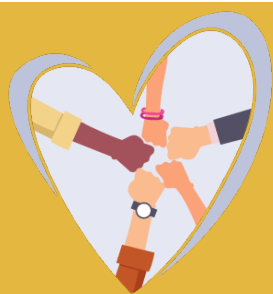

The second training round of the Goremote project in Croatia

On May 11, 2023, the second round of training as part of the GO Remote project began in Croatia. The selected training programs are Digital Marketing and Basics of Website Development via Wordpress. The participants will learn new knowledge and skills as part of the education, which will greatly increase the employment opportunities of the participants. The training programs will last until the end of June, after which there will be a speed date event where participants will have the opportunity to show potential employers their abilities and hopefully get a job.

Cyprus

The Cyprus partner, OTI (One Terrene International), is diligently working on the development of an extraordinary International Digital Marketing course that is set to revolutionize the way participants acquire essential skills in this rapidly evolving field. In this updated version of the course, OTI is taking a forward-thinking approach by integrating cutting-
